Council Service Center & Scout Shop Update

There are a number of developments to share regarding our office and retail spaces for the Golden Gate Area Council (GGAC). The San Leandro building has been sold to the American Red Cross effective July 30, 2021. The Pleasant Hill building is under contract to be sold and, if all goes well, the sale should close by the end of September.

The GGAC Executive board recently approved a new location for the Council Service Center at 6601 Owens Drive in Pleasanton. The building is located with easy access from 580 and 680, and is a short walk from the BART station.

Lease negotiations are underway. Expected opening date will be November 1.

The board also approved a Scout Shop in Pleasant Hill, and is looking possibly to a trading post in the Cordelia area.
