2023 Sign-Up Night Guide

Pack Tips for Successful Cub Scout & Adult Recruiting

<https://ggacbsa.org/recruitment-resources/>

Welcome to Fall Recruiting in the Golden Gate Area Council! Your mission is so especially important because everything you do...and the way you do it...has the potential to make a positive impact on the lives of the youth and families in our community. Thank you for your efforts to build tomorrow's leaders by growing Scouting today!

To launch this fun in the absolute best way, remember that every new Cub Scout who joins in 2022 will receive a free Cub Scout Branded Kite! Kites will be distributed by District Executives upon receipt of completed and paid applications for new youth. When new Cub Scouts and their families attend the pack's Parent Orientation meeting, the pack leaders can make a fun and exciting presentation of kites to all the newly registered Cub Scouts!

Sign-Up Night Branding

- 2016 marked the first year of the Sign-Up Night brand (formerly “Rally Night” or “School Night for Scouting”), designed to help volunteers, parents, chartered organizations, staff, and the community-at-large better understand our purpose – coming together to sign new youth up for Cub Scouting!
- Sign-Up Night resources are available to help recruiters successfully invite youth and their families to join, involve them immediately in quality activity, and inspire them to keep Scouting a part of their lives. See <https://ggacbsa.org/recruitment-resources/> for the latest resources and ideas.

Key Elements to All Sign-Up Nights

- Pack leaders should choose a Sign-Up Night method – either Presentation OR Table Rotation method – and follow the guidelines given in this booklet to make that method a success. Individuals coordinating and speaking on behalf of Scouting should be the most qualified presenters, trained and well prepared.
- Sign-Up Nights at each school should be kept to 30-45 minutes. A separate Parent Orientation Meeting should be held within one week following Sign-Up Night to help introduce new families to more information about the pack and its activities.
- Sign-Up Nights at each school should only be held on a Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday evening, and never the day after a major holiday, such as Labor Day.
- Scout Talks in the school should not be conducted on a Friday, as youth may lose their excitement about Sign-Up Night and Scouting over the weekend.
- Pack leaders should welcome families and be sure they register on the Sign-Up Night Roster to accurately record every parent and youth that attends.
- Pack leaders should obtain a completed youth application, signed by the parent and unit leader, for every youth who attends Sign-Up Night to ensure all critical contact information is obtained.
- Each family should submit the prorated registration fee at Sign-Up Night.
- All applications and prorated registration fees must be turned in to the District Executive within 24 hours of the Sign-Up Night or that week’s Turn-In Night.
- Every family should receive a welcoming phone call from the den leader, Cubmaster, or committee chair within a few days of registration.

Sign-Up Nights held at each school are always more successful because parents & potential Scouts are already familiar with their school!

2023 Fall Recruitment Timeline

Why have a Timeline? —To better capitalize on promotional efforts, create excitement, and ensure enough time to recruit youth through follow-up efforts, we will have a tight window for all first-round Sign-Up Nights. These must be scheduled on Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday evenings during September.

All Sign-Up Nights should occur at the local elementary school whenever possible.

July / August

- Secure date, time, and location for both first and second Sign-Up Nights
- Secure Scout Talks ahead of the first Sign-up Night—day before or the same day as Sign-Up Night
- Promote Sign-Up Night
 - Yard signs, posters, Peer-to-Peer cards, flyers, bulletin board announcements, social media, email blasts, personalized invitations to prospective parents, Information table at Open House and Meet-the-Teacher nights, etc.
- Prepare Sign-Up Night handouts – Welcome packets with Pack Information sheet, Parent Orientation flyer, youth & adult applications, etc.

August / September

- Conduct Scout Talks
- Conduct Sign-Up Night
- Submit completed youth applications and prorated registration fees in exchange for kites
- Conduct Parent Orientation Meeting and present kites to newly registered Cub Scouts
- Submit completed adult applications, prorated fees, and training certificates

Late September / Early October

- Promote second Sign-Up Night
 - Yard signs, posters, Peer-to-Peer cards, flyers, bulletin board announcements, social media, email blasts, personalized invitations to prospective parents, etc.

Preparing New Families

Packs with an excellent history of membership development and retention have one thing in common—they are prepared to receive new youth into their program. To ensure your pack is prepared, follow these guidelines:

- Create a short, colorful pack information sheet to distribute to all new families at Sign-Up Night.
- Involve existing parents in creating a welcoming environment, where new families can feel connected and learn more about Scouting. Nationally, the #1 reason given by families who dropped out of Scouting last year was that no one made them feel welcome...they never felt connected. Let's all commit to doing a better job of being helpful, friendly, courteous, and kind!
- Host a separate Parent Orientation Meeting within one week of Sign-Up Night (see a sample Parent Orientation Agenda below) to share more details about the pack's leadership, fall activities, fundraisers, and the 2022-2023 pack calendar. This is also a great opportunity to make a fun presentation of the kite kits for the new Cub Scouts!

Role of Unit Leadership

The recruiting of Scouts and leaders happens at the pack level and in the communities where people live, work, and play. While the Golden Gate Area Council and the district membership teams will support each pack in their recruiting efforts, each pack will be responsible for the following:

- Designate a pack Sign-Up Night Coordinator – Person who takes the lead in organizing the Sign-Up Night.
- Commitment to conduct a Sign-Up Night at the local elementary school in Fall 2023.
- Confirm Sign-Up Night dates with District Fall Recruitment Chair or District Executive by August 18th, 2023.
- Display the yard signs in high visibility areas from August through October.
- Turn in all new member applications and prorated fees to the District Executive within 24 hours of Sign-Up Night or at that week's Turn-In Night.
- Distribute kites to newly registered Scouts during the Parent Orientation Meeting.
- Promote the registration and participation of families at district and council events offered during the fall, including Kite Day events.
- Inform new leaders of online and in-person training opportunities.
- Conduct a second recruiting event in late September / early October following the same steps as before.

Marketing Your Sign-up Night

(See <https://ggacbsa.org/recruitment-resources/> for recruitment resources)

Yard Signs

Display the yard signs in high traffic areas in your neighborhood and near the school(s) where you recruit members.

Flyers / Posters

Put up flyers/posters anywhere—school, daycare centers, community centers, grocery stores, restaurants, bowling alley, etc.

School and Neighborhood Newsletters

Write an article for your school and neighborhood newsletters, spotlighting Scouting and all the activities and good things your unit is doing to make an impact in your local community and at your school...include pictures!

Church / Chartered Organization Bulletins

Work with Chartered Organization leadership (Chartered Organization Representative and Institutional Head) to be sure all play a role in recruiting success. Encourage the chartered organization to publish your announcement in the church bulletin or newsletter the week prior to your Sign-Up Night.

Meet the Teacher Night / School Open House

This is a great time to have a booth set up to show off Scouting and explain what your unit does best. The open house should NOT replace your Sign-Up Night but should be used to encourage people to attend and enroll.

- Booth staffed by two or three excited volunteers, decorated with Pack pics, tent, camping gear
- 30 second sale driving people to the Sign-Up Night
- Collect 5 pieces of contact information on a sign in sheet (provided and downloadable from the website) and hand them a flyer (if allowable)
- Email same night to all who signed in welcoming them and inviting them to Sign-Up Night
- Follow up email / call the day before reminding and inviting them to the Sign-Up Night

Peer-to-Peer Cards

Give these cards to your youth so they can distribute them to their friends with the date, time, and location of your Sign-Up Night. These cards will be available for Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Venturing. Ask your DE!!!

Email Invitations (parent to parent)

Ask the parents in your pack to send an email invitation to all their friends that have Scout-age youth. People like to join organizations where they know other people. An email message helps them understand their friends are involved, too.

Social Networking

Ask parents who are on Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, NextDoor, etc. to update their status to talk about your pack's website and the Sign-up Night, or simply have them go to www.BeAScout.org for more details.

Families Want to Join Where They Feel Welcome

5 Tips for Making
New Families Feel
Welcome

1. Be Present

Make sure your Pack is at Meet the Teacher & has a Sign-Up Night.

2. Communicate

Email, Call, Facebook: The more you say hello & welcome, the better.

3. Have Fun

No one wants to be bored. Make your meetings fun & engaging, especially the first meetings they attend!

4. Plug Them In

Getting people involved early in simple tasks will onramp them to future volunteer opportunities.

5. Celebrate Them

Pull them up front, send a notice to the Facebook group, etc. to welcome all new Scouts/families. The more you celebrate them, the more they feel included and get involved.

Paper Registration vs. Online Registration

Starting in 2017, Online Registration through the BSA Online Registration Portal became a functional and viable alternative to paper registration for units in the field. More, families who grew up with fast access to technology are coming into Scouting age; as they do, they lean more onto online resources than on traditional paper applications. Units who adjust with the demand are finding that online registration is quick and easy, but there are some important steps to follow:

CHECK OUT THE ONLINE REGISTRATION GUIDEBOOK FROM THE BSA, AVAILABLE AT:

<https://www.scouting.org/resources/online-registration/>

Tips for Successful use of Paper Applications

- Make sure each family fills out the Sign In sheet as they enter the Sign-Up night
- Make sure that each family gets an application packet as they walk in the room
- Ask them to start filling out the application before the presentation begins when using the presentation model, or as soon as they get to the registration table if you are using the table rotation model
- Check the application with them for accuracy & completion before they leave
- Collect fees with the application
- Contact all attendees who did NOT submit an application that evening inviting them to parent orientation and remind them to bring their application
- Get the paper applications to your District Executive ASAP so you can get your kites!!!!

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

GOLDEN GATE AREA COUNCIL

Tips for Successful use of Online Applications

- Make sure your unit is set up to accept online applications on BEASCOUT.ORG
- Make sure each family fills out the Sign In sheet as they enter the Sign-Up night
- Have your Unit's QR code in posted multiple locations at the sign-up night (on the flyer if possible) so it is easy to locate. Prompt attendees to scan the code and go to the site to sign up
 - If you don't know where to get your QR code, please contact your District Executive
- Remember that the Online system only collects National BSA Registration Fees, not Pack dues
- Contact all attendees who did NOT submit an application online that evening inviting them to parent orientation and remind them to complete their application online
- Provide a copy of the complete online registration roster for your unit to your District Executive who can then provide you kites for those youth

Invite Them Back! Regardless which method you use to sign Scouts up, make sure your Pack provides each family with an invite to the next meeting (parent orientation)!

Text to Join, the Join Landing Page & Utilizing Online Registration

Starting in 2020 and due to the global pandemic, engaging with families in a completely digital way became paramount for ensuring their access to Scouting. As such, the Golden Gate Area Council developed a completely digital strategy for families to connect to their local Scouting unit.

Text to Join

The Golden Gate Area Council partners with a secure text to join provider, resulting in a simple and easy way for families to join Scouting digitally.

On your flyers, posters and yard signs, place to following simple message:

Digital Flow to Join

Utilizing Text to Join services, interested families could text a simple number, land on a "join home page" that would direct them to their school. From there, the family could select to receive more information about their local pack, connect with the unit leadership or even click on a unit's "join button" to directly join the unit through Be A Scout.

Setting Your Unit Up for Success

So how do you ensure that your Pack is ready for a success? First, visit www.my.scouting.org and make sure that your Pack information is correct under Organization Manager then Unit Pin. Update the information then select “Save” at the bottom of the screen. Please allow 24 hours for the changes to go into effect on beascout.org.

Sample Sign-up Night Agenda – Presentation Method

(Recommended minimum staff: ten leaders from the pack, a nearby troop, or the district)

All Sign-Up Nights are designed to be fast paced for today’s busy parents. The presentation method has been used successfully for many years. If using this method, remember that the goal is to sign up new Scouts and adult leaders. Packs are asked to avoid the use of PowerPoint presentations because they tend to include too much information, take too much time, and often cause interested families to leave without signing up because they simply can’t stay so long. Instead, new Cub Scouts and parents should be invited back to a Parent Orientation a week later, which gives the pack an opportunity to share more information about their activities and leadership.

The key to making any Sign-Up Night successful is advanced planning and preparation, including recruiting enough enthusiastic volunteers to help. A model campsite with a tent, camp chairs, fishing poles, etc. should be to one side of the presenter, so everyone clearly sees some Scouting fun while they’re there!

Before the meeting (20-30 minutes)

- Set up tables, chairs, and model campsite
- Welcome Packets — youth & adult applications, Pack Information sheet, Parent Orientation flyer, etc.
- Kite patches
- Pens & checkout materials

Welcome & introductions (5 minutes)

- Lead the Pledge of Allegiance
- Introduce pack leaders

What is Scouting (Basic Version—10 minutes)

- Youth development program that builds character & confidence
- Family-oriented; all members of the Scout’s family encouraged to participate when/where possible
- Fun with a purpose—youth will have fun while learning leadership skills
- Briefly describe upcoming pack activities and a recent activity over the summer
- Briefly describe leadership structure of the pack

Families Came to Sign Up! Sign them up and get them out! Resist the urge to flood them with information. Sign Ups should be 30 minutes max, start to finish.

Volunteer Commitments (10 minutes)

- Call one new den up to the front, have each future Scout say what Scouting activity they are looking forward to the most

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

GOLDEN GATE AREA COUNCIL

- Tell the parents of the den that these future Scouts are ready to begin their Scouting journey, so they need coaches, mentors, adults to lead them...we call them Den Leaders
- Ask which parents are committed to help them on their journey and would like to volunteer (for Kindergarten and 1st grade, mention 18 years or older; for girls, one female 21 years or older)
 - Complete Application – have simple recognition for all newly-recruited leaders whose applications and fees are turned in
- Repeat this process for each grade level, if needed

Youth/Adult Registration (5 minutes)

- Discuss pack and BSA registration fees, insurance, and magazine subscription option
- Refer to Pack Information sheet – mention key upcoming dates
- Emphasize Parent Orientation meeting – date/time/location, kites handed out, FUN!
- Direct all to Turn-In tables to gather applications & fees, present youth with kite patch

After the Meeting

- Collect all applications/prorated fees, present youth with patches, answer questions
- Visit with new leaders & parents, encourage Parent Orientation attendance

Sample Sign-Up Night Agenda – Table Rotation Method

(Recommended minimum staff: ten leaders from the pack, a nearby troop, or the district)

All Sign-Up Nights are designed to be fast paced for today’s busy parents. The table rotation method has been deployed with mixed success in recent years but may be the right model depending on your Pack’s circumstances. It allows families more flexible timing, and it allows the pack to have better one-on-one conversations with new families as they visit the tables. Families sign in at the first table, then they go on a self-paced journey through five stations to learn how Scouting and the pack work. Families who are familiar with Scouting, or who have limited time, may hurry past some tables, and go directly to checkout. The diagram below shows the stations and the recommended room setup. A model campsite with a tent, camp chairs, fishing poles, etc. should be in the center of the room so everyone circles some Scouting fun while they’re there!

The key to making any Sign-Up Night successful is advanced planning and preparation, including recruiting enough enthusiastic volunteers to help.

Sign-Up Night Stations

- Welcome/Sign In
- Station 1: Who are the Cub Scouts?
- Station 2: How Does Scouting Work?
- Station 3: Cub Scout Advancement
- Station 4: Funding Your Scout Experience
- Station 5: Join and Check Out

Families Came to Sign Up! Make sure it is easy for them to sign in & sign up and ensure there is not a line at the checkout table. Someone at the exit doors should ask if everyone had the chance to sign up!

Welcome/Sign In: This is the first place interested youth and their parents stop. They sign in, while a greeter provides a brief overview of the process.

- Greet each family as they arrive and ask them to sign in.
- Provide each family with a Welcome Packet – youth & adult applications, Pack Information sheet, etc.
- Invite each family to visit the five stations and learn more about Scouting – sign up and checkout is at the final station.

Station 1: Who are the Cub Scouts? Share basic information about the Cub Scouts ... FUN! ... Scouting is “a game with a purpose” ... FUN! ... the big picture of character development, citizenship, and personal fitness ... FUN! ... the timeless values of the Scout Oath & Law ... the uniform ... plus FUN, FUN, and more FUN!

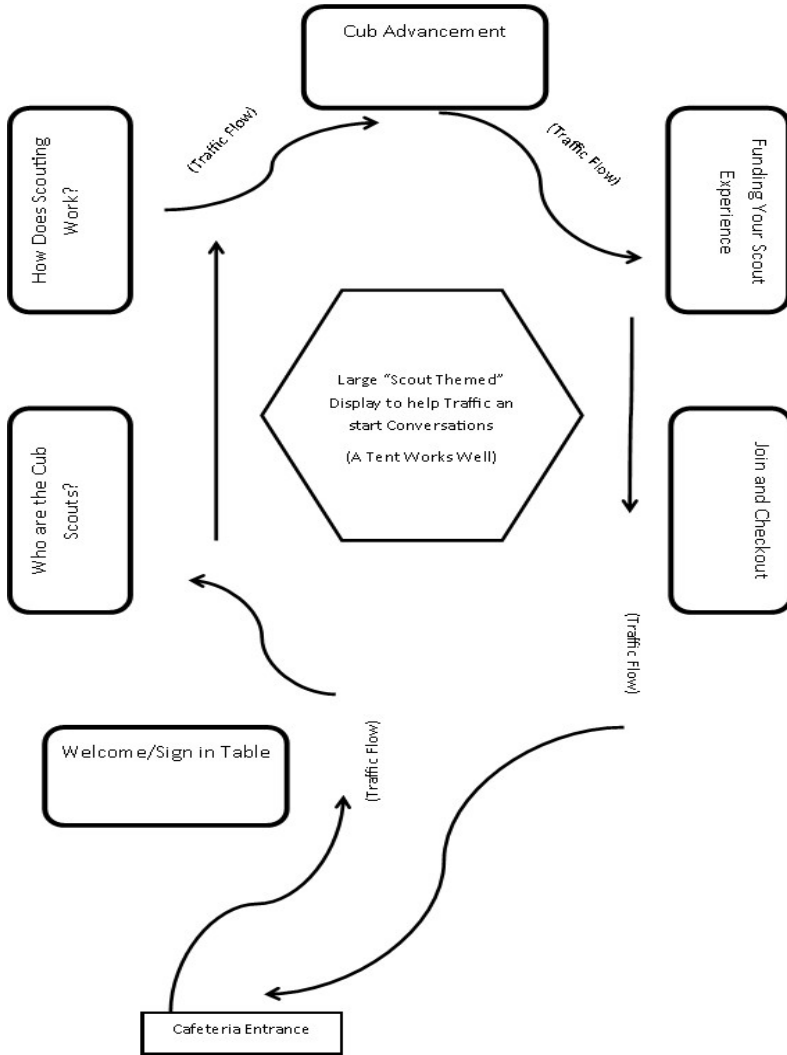

Materials:

- Station 1 tri-panel display
- Scout Shop Guide to the Uniform
- Pack pictures

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

GOLDEN GATE AREA COUNCIL

Station 2: How Does the Program Work?

This station touches on dens, pack meetings, outside activities, and the importance of volunteers. Start a friendly discussion about all parents helping wherever they can...everyone is busy, but everyone does something...and reassure that our pack helps new parents get started off well!

Materials:

- Station 2 tri-panel display
- Fun stuff from pack activities...Pinewood Derby Cars, keepsakes from outdoor activities, pictures of youth and parents having loads of fun, camping gadgets youth have made, etc.

Station 3: Advancement. This station touches on the different ranks in Cub Scouts, listing out some of the specific adventures for each rank...mention “age-appropriate activities” and all the opportunities for fun. Again, a good opportunity to mention great ways to volunteer...personal hobbies, or just an interest in specific advancement requirements, is the perfect way for a new parent to help their child’s den!

Materials:

- Station 3 tri-panel display
- Rank patches, belts full of adventure loops, patch vest, parent’s ribbon full of parent pins
- Patches from campouts, pack & district activities

Station 4: Funding the Program. This station covers registration and fundraising, giving an opportunity to briefly touch on pack fees and additional expenses. Remember that more financial details, like fundraising specifics, will be covered during Parent Orientation, so focus on the big picture.

Materials:

- Station 4 tri-panel display
- Popcorn tins, fundraiser trophies or other prizes from prior sales
- Program/Camp pictures – show where the money goes!

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

GOLDEN GATE AREA COUNCIL

- Copies of Scouts' Life Magazine
- Be prepared to briefly answer questions about pack fee payment plans and/or financial assistance.

Station 5: Join and Check Out. Leaders at this station are responsible for final “check out,” including proper completion of applications, payment, and registration of new leaders. Units that use the rotational model recommend multiple tables and extra, experienced leaders at this station to be sure that the flow doesn't back up here.

Materials:

- Station 5 tri-panel display
- Extra youth and adult applications, pens, calculators, clear instructions about payment options
- Electronic gear for online registration, if Wi-Fi available...always have paper, just in case!
- Patches for “instant recognition” for paid and registered new Scouts.
- Make sure all applications are properly completed, including signatures.
- Collect the proper fee amount for BSA membership fee and magazine, if added.
- Forms, signed by Cubmaster, and all payments should be collected and put in envelope for turn in.
- Secure adult volunteers, especially Den Leaders for new dens. Encourage adults to register...can finalize positions at Parent Orientation, if needed.
- Make sure parents know when and where the first meeting is (Parent Orientation) and answer any other questions parents may have.

Sample Parent Orientation Meeting Agenda

Before the meeting (20-30 minutes)

- Set up table and chairs, as needed
- Roster from Sign-Up Night
- Youth and Adult registration applications (for new families)
- Review Parent Orientation Agenda
- Ceremony and games equipment
- Pens

Families Came to Participate! THIS is where you share all the great things your Pack will do this year...not at Sign-Up Night. Because families have already committed to participate by signing up, they will now find the time to say YES to participation in all the great activities, including volunteering!

Opening (5 minutes)

- Lead the Pledge of Allegiance

- Using whiteboard, blackboard, or poster board—have list of all open positions in the Pack, with the number of volunteers needed for each position
 - Example: Pinewood Derby 3 adults, Blue & Gold 3 adults, Christmas Party 1 adult, etc.
- Ask for at least one adult from each family to participate in one of the roles until you have adequate leadership
- Discuss adult registration fees and uniforms
- Talk briefly about helping new leaders get started—training requirements, meeting resource guides, etc.
- Simple recognition for all parents who have just volunteered

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

GOLDEN GATE AREA COUNCIL

- Upcoming training courses
- Fall activity information
- Popcorn sale dates

After the meeting—enjoy fellowship and refreshments

2023 Resources for Digital Recruiting Be Prepared, Marketing, Communication

With the 2020 – 2021 school year behind us, many tools that were developed during the pandemic still hold relevance moving forward. The Golden Gate Area Council produced a three-prong approach to ensuring that Packs had the resources needed to reach new families and get them involved in Scouting. With schools open for in person classes, this approach can be utilized in conjunction with in-person sign-ups for a wholistic recruiting strategy

Be Prepared

1. Geofencing
 - a. What is it – Geofencing is an online marketing tool which uses cell phone-based proximity to advertise directly to a particular market group. Generally done through apps like Facebook and Twitter, Geofencing places an invisible fence around a geographic location, and when someone in the market group enters that location, sends them a message through their social media platform. To see more about how geofencing works, check out this video: <https://youtu.be/-KKsUhpzbTc>
2. Be A Scout
 - a. Update your contacts – Be A Scout is a great tool, providing that your contact information is updated, and people can reach you. Take some time today to ensure that your www.beascout.org pin is updated, and your contact information is correct. Not sure how to do it? No Problem! Here are two resources to help you:
 - i. Unit Guidebook for Online Registration (Check out Page 6):
<https://i9peu1ikn3a16vg4e45rqj17-wpengine.netdna-ssl.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/08/Unit-Guidebook-for-Online-Registration-November-2018.pdf>
 - ii. Be A Scout Webinar: <https://vimeo.com/437251195>
 - b. Make sure online applications are active for youth / adult – Making it easy to apply online is key for a successful digital recruiting campaign. Check out the Unit Guidebook for Online Registration to see how to utilize the online registration system :
<https://i9peu1ikn3a16vg4e45rqj17-wpengine.netdna-ssl.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/08/Unit-Guidebook-for-Online-Registration-November-2018.pdf>
3. www.scouting.org/recruiting – This is a National website focused on giving you the skills needed to execute in a digital environment. There are amazing trainings that will help you navigate Scouting in the digital environment:
 - a. <https://scoutingwire.org/marketing-membership/>
 - b. Recruitment webinars Are Here: <https://scoutingwire.org/marketing-and-membership-hub/>

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

GOLDEN GATE AREA COUNCIL

4. BSA Brand Center - This national website is full of great new videos and tools that you can use on your Packs Facebook Page, website etc. Check out the 2020 Fall Recruiting Videos under the Cub Scouts tab for great videos to utilize on social media
 - a. <https://scouting.webdamdb.com/bp/#/>
 - i. Scout Talk video
 1. Think of this as digital peer-to-peer recruiting. Scout aged youth are encouraging other youth to join Scouting.
 2. Sending this video to schools to play either on their zoom classes or at campus video announcements, or post the video in a curriculum portal / email it to the parents
 3. Newly created that take the place of an in-person Scout Talk. Get these in front of the parents and youth
 - ii. 5 Questions video
 1. This takes the place of the traditional Sign-Up Night by quickly answering parent's questions.
5. COMING SOON!! Text To Join and see what happens! An autoreply text message with Scout Me In logo appears and drives interested parties to our landing page where the can sign up for the Pack at their school

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

GOLDEN GATE AREA COUNCIL

Marketing

None of the resources above will work if you don't market your Pack through the community. Frontend, grassroots marketing will be your best friend here, so don't be afraid to put out those resources and get creative! Some of the best ways to do this are to:

1. See if the principal will send home a message (or better yet our digital flyer) with the Text to Join and www.goldengatescouting.org site on the flyer. Your District Executive can help you get this flyer completed and over to you quickly!
2. Yard signs galore! Put them out all over your community! Not only will you be making it easy for families to join your Pack, everywhere in your area, people will see the same message, and be driven to the landing page where they find the right Pack for their school!
3. Posters: Don't be fooled: posters in community centers, coffee shops and just around town are still an extremely effective tool. Like the yard signs, utilize them to make it easy and efficient for families to find you!
4. Social Media (Facebook, Twitter, NextDoor): Blast your social media pages with your links to join. You can get great images for marketing on social media on the BSA Brand Center (see above)

THIS LIST IS NOT COMPLETE! GOT A GREAT MARKETING IDEA? Post it to the Council Facebook page to share with other Packs through the Golden Gate Area Council!

Communication

This whole exercise will be a waste of time if Packs don't follow up with the families that sign up online. Make it a point to have a Welcome Meeting as your first meeting back. Have parents go through the orientation while the new Scouts play in a household scavenger hunt!

1. Designate your most welcoming leader as the Be A Scout contact. This person can review and approve all applications that come in provided that the Key 3 has given them this designation in my.scouting.org (reference the Unit Guidebook to Online Registration above for a how to).
2. Follow Up, Follow Up, Follow Up.
 - a. A Phone call welcoming the new family to the Pack should happen within 2 or 3 days of them joining online. Even if it is just to say, "Hello & Welcome." Don't have your parents meeting date locked in yet? No Problem! Tell the newly joining families that you are welcoming all new families at a singular online meeting in a few weeks. You just wanted to say welcome and get them in contact with someone at the Pack.
 - b. Send a follow-up form email that provides key Pack leader information and parent orientation meeting date
 - c. Call / invite them back a few days before the parent orientation meeting to remind them to be there!

Great deals are made or lost in the Follow Up, and Scouting is a great deal for all our families. Make them feel welcome by communicating often!
