

THE JOINING CONFERENCE

What is a joining conference?

- A meeting between parents of a new Scout and the Unit leader
- Regardless of whether or not the Scout has a disability or special need

The conference is not a job interview

The conference is not required to join the unit.
It takes place after the Scout has joined.

Conference Purpose

- Build the relationship
- Share information

First: Get to know the Scout

- What are the Scout's Interests?

General Questions

- What is the name that the Scout wants to be called? How do you pronounce it?
- What are the Scout's strengths and abilities?
- What are Scout's expectations? What is the Scout hoping to get from Scouting? What activities of Scouting most interest them?
- Is the Scout involved in any other youth organizations?
- How is this Scout unique?

Then: Questions about challenges

- Barriers and Concerns
- Strategies to Help with Challenges

Challenges

- Do you have any concerns about joining Scouts?
- Are there things that are harder for this Scout than for others?
- Is there anything we need to watch out for or avoid doing with this Scout?
- Are there things that help the Scout be successful at home or school? Is there anything we need to make sure we do for this Scout? If the Scout is struggling, what works to help the Scout?

Finally, Address Any Identified Special Needs

- Description. Triggers?
- How to address needs
- Parental support

Special Needs

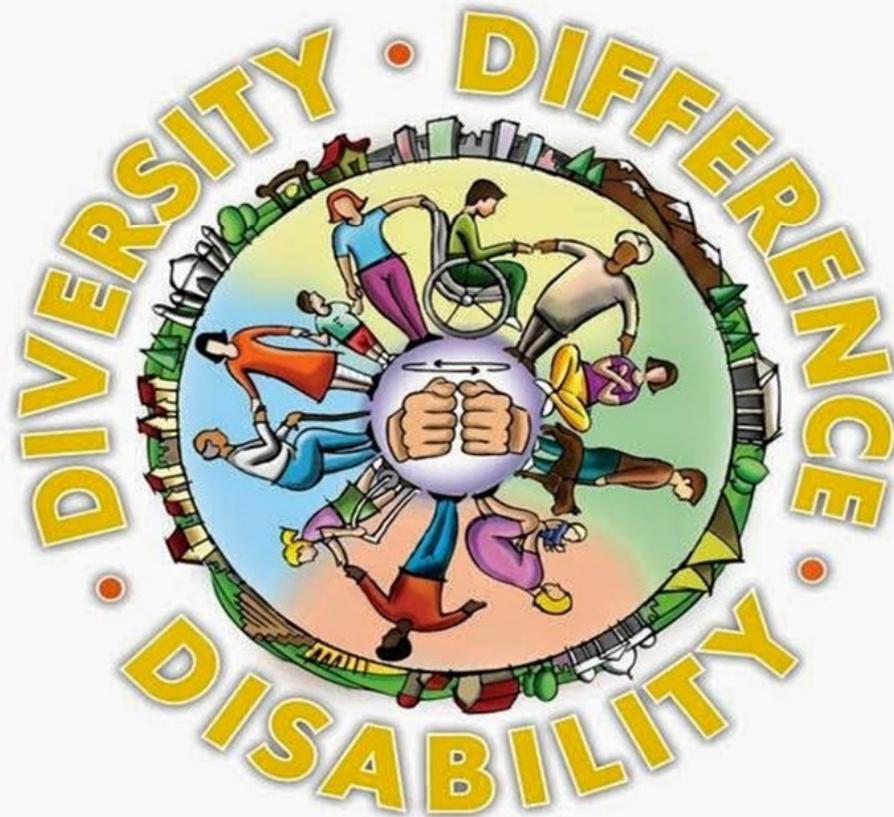

- Describe the challenges the Scout may have.
- Describe any special needs that might arise at a meeting, campout, or field trip, and how to best handle them.
- What specific assistance or equipment is used by the Scout?
- What support can the parents provide?
- Are there triggers for emotional or behavioral struggles, and how best can the struggles be addressed or avoided?

BSA Commitment

For parents of a Scout with special needs, describe:

- Support system
- Resources

Obstacles

Conference Reminders

- Relaxed and Informal
- Open-ended questions
- Behavior more important than a diagnosis
- Confidentiality
